

BAHRAIN

THARAWAT INVESTMENT HOUSE (THARAWAT)

Innovative Islamic investments

THARAWAT INVESTMENT HOUSE (Tharawat) was established in the Kingdom of Bahrain on 31st July this year, based on the desire of its founders to introduce an innovative Islamic investment organization that would work with the slogan "Thriving Together" and aim to add high qualitative value to the Islamic investment sector in the GCC (Gulf Cooperation Council) countries. Tharawat has an authorized capital of $100 million and a paid up capital of $33.25 million. Tharawat hold a category one Islamic investment firm licence and operates under the supervision of the Central Bank of Bahrain.

The vision of the company is to be the best Islamic investment house engaging in Shariah-compliant activities and operating across the Islamic nations, with a prime focus on GCC countries, and to be viewed as a reference standard.

MISSION:

- Introduce high quality innovative Shariah-compliant investment products, with a high degree of risk management.
- Build knowledge and expertise in investing and managing industrial, agricultural, and services-related investments, with a lesser degree on real estate investments.
- Contribute to the socio-economic development of Islamic

Saeed Bin Abdulla
Al Misned, Chairman

Arif Mohammed
Al Alawi, CEO

countries where Tharawat will operate, through active participation in various sectors.

- Maximise Tharawat stakeholders value including its shareholders, investors, employees and partners.

"Tharawat will focus on investing in the industrial, agriculture, service and real estate sectors. The geographical spread of the company's investments will cover the GCC countries, Yemen as well as other Islamic countries," says Saeed Bin Abdulla Al Misned, Chairman of Tharawat Investment House.

According to CEO Arif Mohammed Al Alawi, the company provides investment vehicles that satisfy the diverse goals of investors. Its products include investments in venture capital start-up operations, private equity acquisitions, asset-backed cash yielding projects, Asset management services, Wealth management services and Consultancy services.

The company's Shariah Supervisory Committee members are Shaikh Nidham Mohammed Yaqubi, Chairman; Shaikh Dr. Mohammed Sultan Al-Ulema, member, and Shaikh Osamah Bahar, member. — Advertiser's content

ثروات THARAWAT

Investment House دار استثمارية

AIMING TO BE

The best Sharia'a compliant Islamic investment house operating in the Islamic world in general and the GCC in particular.

THROUGH

Focussing on industrial, agricultural investment enterprises, downstream industries and services with a lesser degree of concentration on real estate investments.

Thriving together ...

